ing anything about it ourselves.

A desperate effort had been made to get up a large meeting. The Gazette said it would be one of the largest ever held in Eastern Ohio, or something like that. We are informed that not more than 500 strangers were in Barnesville on that day. They were counted in the procession, and at the stand.

Wm. Kennon, Jr., the chief of the Copperheads in this county, precided, and made a speech. Geo. L. Converse, Jas. R. Morris and Jos. W. White also made speeches.

The meeting resolved in favor of Vallandigham as the Copperhead candidate for Governor of Ohio.

There were none but old party hacks and political wire-pullers in attendance upon this meeting. Kennon, Jr., Johny Heaton, Harrison Massie, Tazewell Martin, Josiah Watson, Wm. Lucas, John Gardner, Townsend Frazier, Dr. Campbell, Joe Green, Steve. Gressinger, Aleck Patton, Ike Patterson: Jack Swaney, John W Ukey—and so on, through the whole list.

It is inst.,—four from Cadiz and the remainder from Georgetow and vicinity.

The meeting was addressed by James L. Rivers, of Flushing, and David S. Bruce, of Cadiz. I will give you the concluding part of Mr. Rivers' speech. Speaking of the ultimate destiny of our struggle, he said:—"And if at last our noble old ship of state shall go down amid the breakers—if that glorious old flag of our country shall eventually be trailed in the dust beneath the iron heel of despots—if its stars and stripes, emblems of our national union and the pride of the patriot, shall be descerated by the sacriligious hands of traitors—let if be when every Southern hearthstone has been smitten by the desolating hand of war—when every Southern hearthstone has been smitten by the desolating hand of war—when every Southern hearthstone has been smitten by the desolating hand of war—when every Southern hearthstone has been smitten by the desolating hand of war—when every Southern hearthstone has been smitten by the desolating amoke. Let it go down amid the din of battle, the roar of musket-ry, and the thunder of cannon.

Invitations have also been extended to Hon. DANIEL S. DICKINSON. Hon. BENJ. STANTON, Hon. JOHN A. BINGHAM, Hon. G. VOLNEY DORSEY, Hon. SAMUEL CRANE. of Virginia, Hon. WM. DENNISON, Col. GEO. W. McCOOK, Col. C. L. POORMAN, Col. WM. WALLACE, Capt. D. H. WILLIAMS, and others.

Let the People arise in their might, and prove to our brave volunteers from this county in the armies of the Mississippi, the Cumberland, the Potomac, the South, and elsewhere, that while they are nobly baring their breasts to the terrible storm of battle for their country, they have our prayers and sympathies.

Let us show the miserable Rebel sympathizers in our midst that we are resolved that, "Come weal, come woe," "The Union must and thall be preserved."

The Old School Assembly and the Flag.

J. J. JANNEY, Sec'y & Tr.

Gov. Perront, of Va., has assured us that he will be here, and will speak to the beople.

We were in error last week when we said Gov. Top had never spoken in this county. The Governor was here in '44, and spoke produced to Lieut. Colonel of the 25th Ohio or 'Polk, Dallas, Tod, Texas and Victory.''

Gov. Perront will soon leave for Eastwing in the same another opportunity of hearing him. He is a fine speaker and a noble man.

Sam. Galloway is one of the finest popular orators in the Union. He has few equals as a public speaker. It will be a treat to hear him dissect the Copperheads,
